

Article 16

Coverage of the agreement with respect to goods

Free-Trade Area regime shall apply to goods originating in customs territory of the Contracting Parties and intended for customs territory of the Contracting Parties.

Article 17

Services

1. The Contracting Parties will, on the basis of mutuality, seek a gradual cancellation of restrictions with a view to create conditions for free rendering services within the territory of the Agreement.
2. The Contracting Parties will determine types of services which are subject to this Article and will single out priority types of services in the area of immediate service of trade turnover with respect to which the issues of liberalization of importation and exportation are to be immediately solved.
3. The Contracting Parties shall reserve the right to coordinate issues connected with rendering services both on a multilateral and bilateral basis.

Article 18

Exchange of information on legal regulation of foreign economic relations

The Contracting Parties shall, in accordance with agreed procedure, provide each other with information on domestic legal regulation of foreign economic relations.

Article 19

Procedure of dispute settlement

1. Any disputes and disagreements between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation and/or application of provisions of this Agreement, as well as other disputes affecting rights and obligations of the Contracting Parties under this Agreement or in connection with it, shall be settled in the following way:
 - the interested Contracting Parties conduct immediate consultations between each other or by mutual consent with the participation of representatives of other Contracting Parties;
 - within the framework of a special conciliatory procedure (by creating working parties to study materials of dispute and work out recommendations);
 - in the Economic Court of the CIS;
 - within the framework of other procedures provided by international law.
2. Transition to the subsequent procedure is possible by mutual consent of the Contracting Parties between which disputable questions or disagreements arose, or by the order of one of them if agreement is not reached within six months from the day of the beginning of the procedure.