

System of Commodity Description and Coding changed in at least one of the first four digits due to this processing;

- (c) Produced with the use of raw materials and components listed in "b" above.

Detailed rules on establishing commodity origins shall be coordinated by the Parties and included in a document that shall become an integral part of this Agreement.

Article 2

The Parties shall not:

- directly or indirectly impose any internal taxes or fees on commodities that are subject to this Agreement, in excess of corresponding taxes and fees imposed on similar commodities of domestic production or of third country origin;
- apply any special limitations or conditions to commodities that are subject to this Agreement, in excess of limitations or conditions applied under similar circumstances to similar commodities of domestic production or of third country origin;
- apply special rules to warehousing, reloading, storage, and transportation of goods that originated within the territory of the Parties, and to payments and payment transfers, different from rules applied in similar situations regarding goods of domestic production or of third country origin.

Article 3

1. The Parties shall refrain from discriminating, introducing quotas or similar measures against each other in the export and/or import of goods within the framework of this Agreement.

2. Quotas referred to in Paragraph 1 of this Article may be introduced unilaterally, within reasonable limits, and with strictly defined time frames only in the event of:

- heavy deficit of a given commodity on the internal market -until the market condition stabilizes;
- heavy deficit in the balance of payment -until the balance of payment situation stabilizes;
- some commodity being imported into the territory of one of the Parties in such increased quantities or under such conditions that harm or threaten to harm domestic manufacturers of similar or directly competing goods.

3. If necessary, the quotas referred to in Paragraph 2 of this Article may be formalized in a separate protocol to this Agreement.

4. The Party that uses quotas pursuant to Paragraph 2 of this Article prior to formal introduction of these quotas, shall, upon request of the other Party, provide the necessary information on the reasons, forms, and possible time frames for using these quotas and any additional requested information.

5. The Party that intends to apply protective measures shall notify the other Party of its intent in a timely fashion, not later than 30 days before the planned implementation of such measures.
