

PROTOCOL

On the Peculiarities of the Movement of Goods and Vehicles from the Customs Territory of the Eurasian Economic Union, including the Territory of the Republic of Armenia, to the Customs territory of the Eurasian Economic Union, including the Territory of the Republic of Armenia, through Territories that are Not the Customs Territory of the Eurasian Economic Union

1. This Protocol defines the peculiarities of the movement of goods and vehicles from the customs territory of the Eurasian Economic Union, including the territory of the Republic of Armenia, to the customs territory of the Eurasian Economic Union, including the territory of the Republic of Armenia, (hereinafter “the Customs Territory of the Union”) through territories that are not the customs territory of the Eurasian Economic Union (hereinafter “Territories of Foreign States”).

2. This Protocol shall not apply to goods moved through pipeline transport, electricity transmission lines, waterways, or aerial ways.

3. The terms used in this Protocol shall have the meaning defined by the Customs Code of the Customs Union, which is an integral part of the Treaty on the Customs Code of the Customs Union dated 27 November 2009 (hereinafter “the Customs Code of the Customs Union”).

4. The movement of goods of the Eurasian Economic Union from the Customs Territory of the Union to the Customs Territory of the Union through the Territories of Foreign States shall be performed in accordance with the Customs Code of the Customs Union, other international treaties and acts that regulate customs relations and make up the law of the Eurasian Economic Union, subject to the peculiarities stipulated by this Protocol.

5. When moving from the Customs Territory of the Union to the Customs Territory of the Union through the Territories of Foreign States in accordance with the customs procedure of customs transit, goods of the Eurasian Economic Union shall maintain the status of goods of the Eurasian Economic Union.

6. The customs body that covers the area that includes such place of movement of goods across the customs border of the Eurasian Economic Union, in which the goods leave the Customs Territory of the Union (hereinafter “the Place of Departure”), or the customs body of the place of destination shall place an identification mark on a vehicle, container, or other packaging intended for the movement of goods of the Eurasian Economic Union, which leave the Customs Territory of the Union for transportation from the Customs Territory of the Union to the Customs Territory of the Union through the Territories of Foreign States. The procedure of placing identification marks shall be defined by the customs body of such Member State of the Eurasian Economic Union (hereinafter “the Member State”) in which the Place of Departure is.

The sharing of samples of identification marks shall be performed by Member States within one month from the date of entry into force of the Treaty on the Accession of the Republic of Armenia to the Treaty on the Eurasian Economic Union

7. After completing the customs procedure of customs transit in respect of goods of the Eurasian Economic Union in accordance with the Customs Code of the Customs Union, as well as other international treaties and other acts that regulate customs relations and make up the law of the Eurasian Economic Union, the customs body of the place of destination shall not perform completion of customs operations related to the placement of such goods under temporary custody or their customs declaration under the customs procedure.

8. Control of the movement of goods of the Eurasian Economic Union from the Customs Territory of the Union to the Customs Territory of the Union through the Territories of Foreign States shall be performed through the application of technologies for information collaboration between the customs bodies of the Member States.
