

- Investigation and production concerning defensive needs;
- Supply with materials and equipment applied in nuclear industry;
- Protection of the public moral and public order;
- Protection of industrial or intellectual property;
- Gold, silver or other precious stones and metals;
- Protection of human health, animals and plants.

Article 11

1. The Side provides, in advance, another Side with an information about reasons, character and possible terms of adoption and operation of governmental regulation measures.
2. Sides carry out preliminary consultations. In case of impossibility of making coordinated decisions within six months, the Side, noted in paragraph 1 of the present agreement, has the right to carry out governmental regulation measures at discretion.

Article 12

Each Side will not permit unauthorized re-export of goods, in regard to the export of which another Side producing these goods applies governmental regulation measures.

Sides determine lists of goods, according to which unauthorized re-export is prohibited. Sides also exchange lists of goods to which governmental regulation measures are applied.

Re-export of such goods to third countries may be implemented only through the letter of consent and in terms defined by the authorized bodies of the country, which is the originator of the commodity.

Article 13

With the aim to implement agreed policy on export control towards third countries, Sides will hold regular consultations and take mutually agreed measures for establishing effective export control system.

Article 14

Provisions of the present agreement replace provisions of the previous bilateral agreements, concluded between the Sides, where these provisions are incompatible or identical.

Article 15