(c) produced with the use of raw material, materials and parts mentioned in subparagraph "b".

Article 2

The Parties shall not:

(a) Directly or indirectly impose on goods, subject to this Agreement, domestic taxes or levies which exceed the relevant taxes and levies imposed on similar domestically produced goods or goods originating in third countries:

(b) introduce with respect to importation or exportation of goods, subject to this Agreement, any special restrictions and requirements which in a similar situation are not applied to similar domestically produced goods or goods originated from countries:

(c) apply with respect to warehousing, trans-shipping, storing and transporting goods originating in the other Party, as well as payments and transfer of payments, rules other than those applied in similar cases with respect to their own goods or goods originating in third countries.

Article 3

1. Under this Agreement, in mutual trade, the Parties shall refrain from applying discriminatory measures and introducing quantitative restrictions or measures, equivalent with them, to exportation and/or importation of goods.

2. The Parties may unilaterally establish quantitative restrictions, but in reasonable limits and for a strictly defined period.

3. These restrictions must be exclusive and may be applied only in cases of an acute deficit of the products in the domestic market and acute deficit of the balance-of-payments.

4. A Party which applies quantitative restrictions in compliance with this Article must, as far as possible in advance, provide the other Party with full information concerning the basic reasons for the introduction, forms and expected terms of applying the mentioned restrictions. After that, consultations shall be scheduled.

5. The introduction of quantitative restrictions in compliance with this Article shall be in the form of a separate Protocol.

Article 4

All settlements and payments on trade and economic cooperation between business entities of the Parties shall be made in compliance with the Agreement between the authorized banks of the Parties.
