

2. Where provision had been made for exclusive access for goods pursuant to the New Zealand-Australia Free Trade Agreement, done at Wellington on 31 August 1965 in connection with Schedule A of that Agreement, a Member State shall, notwithstanding paragraph 22 of Article 5 of this Agreement, continue to allocate such access as determined by the exporting Member State provided that:

- (a) allocations are for licensing periods commencing before 1 January 1985;
- (b) more than one exporter wishes to utilise the access available; and
- (c) the availability of such access is insufficient to satisfy the requirements of interested exporters.

3. The Member States, noting that arrangements relating to certain forest products had existed under the New Zealand-Australia Free Trade Agreement, done at Wellington on 31 August 1965, and related agreements, agree that the provisions set out in Annex F of this Agreement shall apply to the goods referred to in that Annex.

Article 21

Customs harmonisation

The Member States recognise that the objectives of this Agreement may be promoted by harmonisation of customs policies and procedures in particular cases. Accordingly the Member States shall consult at the written request of either to determine any harmonisation which may be appropriate.

Article 22

Consultation and review

1. In addition to the provisions for consultations elsewhere in this Agreement, Ministers of the Member States shall meet annually or otherwise as appropriate to review the operation of the Agreement.

2. The Member States shall, at the written request of either, promptly enter into consultations with a view to seeking an equitable and mutually satisfactory solution if the Member State which requested the consultations considers that:

- (a) an obligation under this Agreement has not been or is not being fulfilled;
- (b) a benefit conferred upon it by this Agreement is being denied;
- (c) the achievement of any objective of this Agreement is being or may be frustrated; or
- (d) a case of difficulty has arisen or may arise.

3. The Member States shall undertake a general review of the operation of this Agreement in 1988. Under the general review the Member States shall consider:

- (a) whether the Agreement is bringing benefits to Australia and New Zealand on a reasonably equitable basis having regard to factors such as the impact on trade in the Area of standards, economic policies and practices, co-operation between industries, and Government (including State Government) purchasing policies;
- (b) the need for additional measures in furtherance of the objectives of the Agreement to facilitate adjustment to the new relationship;
