Article 7
Revenue duties

1. A Member State may levy for revenue purposes duties on goods, ingredients or components contained in those goods, originating in and imported from the territory of the other Member State, at rates not higher than those that apply to like goods, ingredients or components produced or manufactured in the territory of the first Member State.

2. A Member State shall not levy on goods, ingredients or components contained in those goods, originating in and imported from the territory of the other Member State, any internal taxes or other internal charges of any kind in excess of those applied, directly or indirectly, to like domestic goods, ingredients or components.

Article 8
Quantitative export restrictions

1. The Member States shall take steps to reduce and eliminate quantitative export restrictions on trade in the Area in a manner to be mutually determined.

2. A Member State shall not impose new quantitative export restrictions or intensify existing quantitative export restrictions on the export of goods to the territory of the other Member State.

3. The provisions of this Article shall not prevent a Member State from taking such measures as may be necessary to prevent evasion, by means of re-export, of quantitative export restrictions which it applies in respect of goods exported to countries outside the Area.

Article 9
Export subsidies and incentives

1. The Member States shall work towards the elimination of all export subsidies and export incentives on goods traded in the Area.

2. Where a Member State effects a general elimination of or reduction in any export subsidy or export incentive such elimination or reduction shall apply to goods traded in the Area.

3. In respect of goods traded in the Area, neither Member State shall:
(a) introduce any export subsidy, export incentive or other assistance measure having similar trade distorting effects to any of the performance-based export incentives listed in Annex D of this Agreement;
(b) extend any of the performance-based export incentives listed in Annex D of this Agreement to any industry or sector of industry, or to any class of goods which was ineligible to receive assistance under such incentive on the day immediately before the day on which this Agreement enters into force; or
(c) increase the basic rate of assistance available under any of the performancebased export incentives listed in Annex D of this Agreement.

4. In respect of goods traded in the Area the performance-based export incentives listed in Annex D of this Agreement shall be progressively reduced and eliminated in accordance with the following provisions and Annex D of this Agreement:
(a) assistance in 1985 shall not exceed 50 per cent of the entitlement to benefit which would otherwise have been available under such export incentives;
(b) assistance in 1986 shall not exceed 25 per cent of the entitlement to benefit which would otherwise have been available under such export incentives; and
(c) there shall be no entitlement to benefit under such export incentives in 1987 or thereafter.

5. Before a Member State implements in any export subsidy or export incentive not listed in Annex D of this Agreement a change that may have a significant effect on trade in the Area, it shall consult with the other Member State.

Article 10
Agricultural stabilisation and support

1. The provisions set out in Annex E of this Agreement shall apply to the agricultural goods listed therein.

2. Before introducing new measures for the stabilisation or support of any agricultural goods or the amendment of any measures in operation on the day on which this Agreement enters into force, including any new or amended measures applying to the goods listed in Annex E of this Agreement, a Member State shall satisfy itself that the consequences for trade in the Area shall be consistent with the objectives of this Agreement.

3. If a Member State gives written notice to the other Member State that, in its opinion, the consequences for trade in the Area of measures taken or to be taken by the other Member State for the stabilisation or support of agricultural goods are inconsistent with the objectives of this Agreement, the Member States shall promptly enter into consultations.

4. The Member States shall, as appropriate, co-operate in respect of trade in agricultural goods in third country markets and to this end shall encourage co-operation between Australian and New Zealand marketing authorities.

Article 11
Government purchasing

1. In government purchasing the maintenance of preferences for domestic suppliers over suppliers from the other Member State is inconsistent with the objectives of this Agreement, and the Member States shall actively and on a reciprocal basis work towards the elimination of such preferences.

2. In pursuance of this aim:
