

3. The main priorities of the coordinated (correlated) transport policy are:
- 1) forming a single transport space;
 - 2) creation and development of the Eurasian transport corridors;
 - 3) implementation and development of the transit potential within the EAEU;
 - 4) coordination of the development of transport infrastructure;
 - 5) creation of logistics centers and transport organizations providing the transportation process optimization;
 - 6) involvement and use of human resources capacity of the member States;
 - 7) development of science and innovation in the field of transport.
4. Coordinated (correlated) transport policy is formed by the member States.
5. The main directions and stages of coordinated (aligned) transport policy are determined by the Supreme Council.
6. Monitoring of the implementation by the member States of the coordinated (aligned) transport policy is conducted by the Commission.

Article 87

Scope of Application

1. Provisions of this Section shall apply to road, air, water and rail transport taking into account provisions of Sections XVIII and XIX of this Treaty and the peculiarities stipulated in Annex 24 to this Treaty.

2. The member States shall seek a gradual liberalization of transport services between the member States.

Procedures, conditions and stages of liberalization are determined by international treaties within the EAEU with peculiarities stipulated in Annex 24 to this Treaty.

3. Requirements for transport security (transport safety and transport operation security) are determined by the legislation of the member States and international agreements.

SECTION XXII

GOVERNMENT (MUNICIPAL) PROCUREMENT

Article 88

Objectives and Regulatory Principles in the Field of Government (Municipal) Procurement

1. The member States shall determine the following objectives and principles of regulation in the government (municipal) procurement (hereinafter - Procurement):

regulation of relations in the field of procurement by the legislation of the member States on procurement and international treaties of the member States;

ensuring optimal and efficient expenditure of funds used for procurement in the member States;

granting national treatment in procurement to member States;

inadmissibility to third countries in the field of procurement of a more favorable treatment than that accorded between the member States;

ensuring openness of information and transparency of procurement;

ensuring unhindered access of potential suppliers and suppliers of the member States to participate in the procurement conducted electronically through the mutual recognition of electronic signature, designed in accordance with the legislation of a member State, by another member State;

ensuring the availability of authorized regulatory and supervisory authorities of the member State in procurement (it is allowed that these functions shall be carried out by one body);

establishment of liability for violation of the legislation of the member States of the procurement; development of competition and opposition of corruption and other abuses in procurement.

2. This Treaty shall not apply to the procurement, the details of which are in accordance with the legislation of a member State are referred to as the state secret (state secrets).

3. Procurement in the member States shall be conducted in accordance with Annex No 25.

4. This section shall not apply to procurement conducted by the national (central) banks of the member States, subject to the provisions of paragraphs second - fourth of this item.

The national banks (central) banks of the member States shall conduct procurement for administrative purposes, construction work and capital repair in accordance with their internal rules for procurement (hereinafter – rules for procurement). Regulations on procurement should not be contrary to the purposes and principles set out in this article, including provision of equal access to potential suppliers of the member States. In exceptional cases the decision of the supreme body of the national (central) bank may establish exceptions to these principles.

Rules for procurement should include requirements for procurement, including the procedure for the preparation and conduct of procurement procedures (including procurement methods) and the conditions for their application, the procedure for concluding agreements (contracts).

The rules for procurement and information on planned and implemented procurement by the national (central) banks of the member States shall be posted on the official websites of national (central) banks of the member States on the Internet in the manner determined by the rules for procurement.

SECTION XXIII INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Article 89 General Provisions

1. Member States shall perform cooperation in the sphere of protection and enforcement of intellectual property rights and provide protection and enforcement of