

Internal Market of Goods

1. Member States during the mutual trade of goods may apply restrictions (subject to the fact that these measures do not serve as unjustifiable discrimination or covered restriction on trade), if such restrictions are necessary for:

- 1) protection of human life and health;
- 2) protection of public morals and public order;
- 3) environmental protection;
- 4) the protection of animal and plant species and cultural values;
- 5) implementation of international obligations;
- 6) the defense and security of the member State.

2. Due to the reasons set out in paragraph 1 of this Article, at the internal market could be imposed sanitary, veterinary and sanitary and phytosanitary quarantine measures in the manner determined under the Section XI of this Treaty

3. Due to the reasons set out in paragraph 1 of this Article, the turnover of certain categories of goods can be limited.

Procedure of moving or handling of such goods at the customs territory of the EAEU is determined in accordance with this Treaty and the international treaties within the EAEU.

SECTION VII

REGULATION OF DRUGS AND MEDICAL PRODUCTS CIRCULATION

Article 30

Formation of a Common Market of Drugs

1. Member States within the framework of the EAEU shall establish a common market of drugs which are consistent to standards of appropriate pharmaceutical practice, based on the following principles:

- 1) harmonization and unification of the legal requirements of member States in the field of drugs circulation;

2) ensuring the unity of the mandatory requirements for the quality, effectiveness and safety of drugs which are circulated at the territory of the EAEU;

3) adoption of common rules in the field of drugs circulation;

4) development and application of the identical or comparable methods of research and monitoring in assessment of the quality, effectiveness and safety of drugs;

5) harmonization of member States legislation in the field of control (supervision) in the field of drugs circulation;

6) implementation of licensing and enforcement functions in the field of drugs circulation through the relevant competent authorities of the member States.

2. Functioning of the common market of drugs within the framework of the EAEU shall be realized in accordance with international agreement within the framework of the EAEU based on provisions of Article 100 of this Treaty.

Article 31

Establishment of Common Market of Medical Products (Healthcare Products and Medical Devices)

1. Member States within the framework of the EAEU shall establish the common market of medical products (healthcare products and medical devices) based on the following principles:

1) harmonization of the legal requirements of the member States in the field of medical products (healthcare products and medical devices) circulation;

2) ensuring the unity of the mandatory requirements for the effectiveness and safety of medical products (healthcare products and medical devices) in circulation at the territory of the EAEU;

3) adoption of common rules in the field of medical products (healthcare products and medical devices) circulation;

4) determination of common approaches for the establishment of system on provision of safety of medical products (healthcare products and medical devices);

5) harmonization of legislation of member States in the field of control (supervision) in the field of medical products (healthcare products and medical devices) circulation;

2. Functioning of the common market of the medical products (healthcare products and medical devices) within the framework of the EAEU shall be realized in accordance with an international agreement within the framework of the EAEU based on provisions of Article 100 of this Treaty.

SECTION VIII CUSTOMS REGULATION

Article 32

Customs Regulation in the EAEU

Within the EAEU common customs regulations are conducted in accordance with the Customs Code of the Eurasian Economic Union and regulatory customs international treaties and acts constituting the right of the EAEU, as well as in accordance with the provisions of this Treaty.

SECTION IX FOREIGN TRADE POLICY

1. General Provisions on Foreign Trade Policy

Article 33

Objectives and Principles of Foreign Trade Policy of the EAEU

1. The foreign trade policy of the EAEU is aimed at facilitation of sustainable economic development of the member States, diversification of the economy, innovative development, increase in volumes and improvement of structure of trade and investment, acceleration of integration processes, as well as further development of the EAEU as efficient and competitive organization within the global economy.

2. The basic principles of foreign trade policy of the EAEU are as follows: