

In respect of goods, which export or import falls under the authorisation regime, stipulated by international treaties, which States of the Contracting Parties are parties to, competent authorities of the Contracting Parties shall issue permission for their export or import, in accordance with the legislation of their States.

Article 12

Protection of intellectual property

For the purposes of this Agreement "protection of intellectual property" means of protection of copyright and related rights, including protection of computer programs and databases, inventions, useful models and industrial samples, trade marks and service marks and names of places of origin of goods, topologies of integrated circuits and confidential information.

The Contracting Parties shall promote the protection of intellectual property rights, including the procedure of obtaining such rights and remedies against any violations.

Such protection will be ensured in accordance with the regulatory issues of intellectual property international treaties, which States of the Contracting Parties are parties to.

In case, if States of one or both of the Contracting Parties are not parties to these treaties, the principle of reciprocity and non-discrimination will apply.

Article 13

Payments

All payments between the States of the Contracting Parties are carried out in accordance with Article 4 of the Agreement between the Government of the Russian Federation and the Union Government of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia on trade and economic cooperation as of August 24, 1994.

Payments related to trade in goods between the economic entities of the States of the Contracting Parties, and transfer of such payments to the territory of one of these States at the place of location of the creditor are not subject to restrictions.

The Contracting Parties will refrain from administrative restrictions in the provision of or repayment of short-term or medium-term loans that provide trade operations of economic entities of their own States.

Article 14

Anti-dumping and countervailing measures

The provisions of this Agreement in any way shall not limit the right of the Contracting Parties to make, after the relevant procedures, the decision on application of anti-dumping or countervailing measures in accordance with the legislation of their States on conditions and/or according to the procedure, established by Article 16 of this Agreement.

Article 15

Safeguard measures

If any goods are imported to the customs territory of the State of one of the Contracting Parties in such quantities or under such conditions as to cause or threaten to cause substantial damage to domestic producers of like or competing goods in the importing State, each of the Contracting Parties, depending on whether its interests were affected after conducting an
