customs area of another Side. If Sides consider it necessary, exclusion from such trade regime on the agreed commodity nomenclature is generally drawn up through documents that are inherent parts of the present agreement.

2. For objectives of the present agreement, commodity, which is determined in accordance with international regulations, is considered as originated from the areas of the Sides during the operation of this agreement.

Article 2

The Sides will not:

- impose local taxes or charges, directly or indirectly on goods, covered by the present agreement, of another Side, at the rate that exceeds the level of relevant taxes or charges imposed on analogous goods of the local production or those produced in third countries;
- introduce special restrictions or demands towards export and import of goods, covered by the present agreement, that in similar cases are not used towards analogous goods of the local production or those produced in third countries;
- use different rules towards warehousing, unloading, storage, shipment of goods, originated from another country to the agreement, as well as towards repayments and remittances, with the exception of rules that in similar cases are used towards domestic goods or those originated from third countries.

Article 3

1. Sides will refrain from carrying out discriminative measures in reciprocal trade as well as from applying quantitative restrictions or their equivalent measures on export and/or import of goods within the framework of the present agreement.

- in the case of sharp commodity deficiency at the domestic market;
- until the stabilization of balance-of-payments;
- where commodity is imported into the area of one of the Sides by such an increased quantity or in such conditions that cause damage to or threaten to inflict damage to domestic producers of similar or directly competitive goods;
- with the purpose of implementing the measures provided by the Article concerning regulation of re-export procedures.

3. The Side, which will apply quantitative restrictions in accordance with this Article, will provide another Side with full information about the reasons for establishment, forms and possible terms of application of mentioned restrictions; hence consultations are appointed and a separate protocol is drawn up.

4. Sides are striving for settlement, through consultations, of all questions related to the establishment of quantitative restrictions arising in accordance with paragraph 2 of this Article.
