

5. According to this Article, Sides will give the priority to measures, which have the slightest negative influence upon achieving the objectives of the present agreement.

Article 4

Sides will exchange, on regular basis, any information about laws and other regulatory acts concerning economic activity in trade and transport spheres, investment, taxation, banking and insurance activity and other financial services including customs issues and statistics.

Sides will immediately inform each other about changes, taking place in the national legislation, that may affect implementation of the present agreement.

Authorized bodies to the Sides coordinate the rule of such an exchange of information.

Article 5

Sides are agreed that re-export is acceptable through written consent of the authorized body of the exporter country.

Article 6

Sides will notify each other of the operating customs tariffs and all their exceptions.

Article 7

Sides consider that unfair business practice is incompatible with the agreement's objectives and undertake not to permit the following methods:

- Agreements between enterprises, decisions of their associations and common methods of business practice that aim to prevent or restrict competition or violate its conditions at the territories of the Sides;
- Actions, through which one or several enterprises using their dominant condition, restrict competition on the whole territories of the Sides or on the substantial part of the Side's territory.

Article 8

During implementation of tariff and non-tariff regulation of bilateral economic relations, for exchange of statistics and for implementation of customs procedures Sides agreed to apply common nine-digit commodity nomenclature of foreign economic activity based on the harmonized system of description and coding of goods and on the combined tariff and statistic nomenclature of European Community. Herewith, for their needs, Sides implement, in case of necessity, development of the commodity nomenclature beyond the bounds of nine-digits.

Establishment of standard pattern of the commodity nomenclature is implemented on the basis of mutual agreements through representatives in relevant international organizations.

Article 9

Sides are agreed that the maintenance of the principle of freedom of transit is the most significant term for achieving the objectives of the present agreement, and the essential element of the process of their linking up in the system of co-operation and international division of labour.
