

FREE TRADE AGREEMENT BETWEEN UKRAINE AND REPUBLIC OF AZERBAIJAN

Annex Information on the Regional Trade Agreement

FREE TRADE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF UKRAINE AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF AZERBAIJAN

I. Background information on the agreement.

1.
Membership: Ukraine, the Republic of Azerbaijan.
DATE OF SIGNATURE: July 28, 1995.

RATIFICATION: July 12, 1996.

ENTRY INTO FORCE: September 2, 1996.

2. Type of agreement – free trade agreement.

3. Scope.

The Agreement covers goods (any movable property, including heat, electric and other types of energy) originating from the customs territory of one Contracting Party and destined to the customs territory of the other Contracting Party.

4. Trade data.

II. Trade provisions.

1. Import restrictions.

1.1. Duties and charges.

The Contracting Parties shall not apply customs duties, taxes and charges, which have an equivalent effect, with respect to importation of goods, originating from the customs territory of one Contracting Party and destined for the customs territory of the other Contracting Party.

1.2. Quantitative restrictions.

In mutual trade the Contracting Parties will refrain from applying discriminatory measures or introducing quantitative restrictions or equivalent measures with respect to importation of goods under this Agreement.

1.3. Common customs tariff.

Introduction of the common customs tariff is not envisaged.

2. Export restrictions.

2.1 Duties and charges.

The Contracting Parties shall not apply customs duties, taxes and charges, which have an equivalent effect, with respect to exportation of goods originating from the customs territory of one Contracting Party and destined for the customs territory of the other Contracting Party.

2.2. Quantitative restrictions.

In mutual trade the Contracting Parties will refrain from applying discriminatory measures or introducing quantitative restrictions or measures, equivalent with them, with respect to exportation of goods under this Agreement.

3. Rules of origin.

Goods originating from the territories of the Contracting Parties shall be goods determined by Regulations on Establishing a Country of Origin as of 30 November, 2000 approved by Decision of the Governments Heads' Council of the Commonwealth of Independent States.

4. Standards.

The Agreement does not stipulate any provisions regarding standards

5. Safeguards.

The Contracting Parties may unilaterally introduce quantitative restrictions, but only for a strictly defined period of time in case of:

- acute deficit of a product in the domestic market, until the market situation is stabilized;
- acute deficit of balance of payments until the situation with the balance of payments is stabilized;
- where a product is imported to the territory of one of the Parties in such increased amounts or on such terms, which damage or threaten to damage local manufacturers of similar or directly competitive goods;
- with a view to carrying out the measures stipulated for re-exportation (regulated by the Agreement on Re-exportation of Goods and on the Procedure of Issuing a Permit for Re-exportation signed at the Council of the Heads of States of the Commonwealth of Independent States meeting on April 15, 1994, Moscow).

The Contracting Party introducing quantitative restrictions shall inform another Contracting Party in advance of the major reasons for establishing, forms of and expected time period for maintaining such restrictions. Consultations shall follow afterwards.

6. Antidumping and countervailing measures.

The Agreement does not contain provisions concerning antidumping and countervailing measures.

7. Subsidies and State Support.

The Agreement does not contain any specific provision concerning subsidies and state support as well as countervailing measures.

8. Provisions concerning specific industries.

The Agreement does not contain any specific provision concerning specific industries.

9. Other provisions.

The Contracting Parties will exchange information on the legislative acts concerning economic activity, including trade, investment, taxation, banking and insurance as well as other financial services, transport and customs, including customs statistics, on a regular basis.

III. General Provisions of the Agreement.

1. Exceptions and Reservations.

The Agreement shall not deprive either of the Contracting Parties of the right to take measures generally accepted in the international practice, which are considered by the Contracting Parties necessary for the protection of their vital interests or which are undoubtedly necessary for the implementation of international agreements of which they are signatories or intend to become signatories, and these measures concern:

- information affecting interests of national defence;
- traffic in arms, ammunition and military equipment;
- research or production related to the national defence needs;
- supply of materials and equipment used in nuclear industry;
- protection of public moral and order;
- protection of industrial and intellectual property;
- trade in gold, silver or other precious metals and stones;
- protection of life and health of people, animals and plants.

2. Accessions.

There is no provision in the Agreement allowing other countries to join it as this is a bilateral agreement.

3. Dispute settlement procedures.

Disputes between the Contracting Parties on the interpretation or application of the provisions of this Agreement shall be resolved through negotiations.

4. Relation with Other Trade Agreements.

The Agreement does not establish any specific relation with other trade agreements.

Provisions of this Agreement shall replace the provisions of any bilateral agreements concluded earlier by the Contracting Parties insofar as the latter are incompatible or identical with the former.

5. Institutional Framework.

To implement the objectives of this Agreement and to work out recommendations on improving trade and economic cooperation between the two countries, the Contracting Parties agreed to establish the Joint Ukrainian-Azerbaijani Commission on Cooperation.

The Joint Ukrainian-Azerbaijani Commission on Cooperation was established to achieve the goal of the Agreement and to develop recommendations on improving trade and economic relations between the Contracting Parties to the Agreement.

The Commission functions according to the Regulation on the Joint Intergovernmental Ukrainian-Azerbaijani Commission on Economic Cooperation of April 22, 1997.

The major functions of the Commission are the following:

- to promote bilateral trade and economic, scientific and technical cooperation between the states, which emanate from international treaties;
- to examine major areas of economic cooperation between the two states based on their interests and potential;
- to promote search and development of perspective areas of economic cooperation based on identification of priority measures and strategic programs aimed at foreign capital and technology attraction;
- to formulate an action plan aimed at increased bilateral trade turnover through expansion of nomenclature of traded goods and streamlining of structure of import/export;
- to coordinate the work of ministries, administrations and other central and municipal executive authorities.

National parts of the Commission comprise Head, Heads of Sub-commissions on different areas of cooperation, Secretary and other members of the Commission.

IV. Other Information.

The Contracting Parties shall consider incompatible with the purposes of this Agreement any unfair business practices and shall not allow in particular, but not exclusively the following methods thereof:

- agreements between enterprises, decisions made by the associations of enterprises, and collective methods of business practices aimed at hindering or limiting competition or disrupting the competitive environment in the territories of the Contracting Parties;

- actions by means of which one or several enterprises use their dominant position, limiting competition within the entire territory of the Contracting Parties or a significant part thereof.

Each Contracting Party shall ensure free transit, via its territory, of goods originating from the customs territory of the other Contracting Party and/or third countries and destined for the customs territory of the other Contracting Party or a third country except for the goods, importation of which is forbidden or requires special permit according to the national legislation of the Contracting Parties.
