II. Trade provisions.

1. Import restrictions.

1.1. Duties and charges.

The Contracting Parties shall not apply customs duties, taxes and charges, which have an equivalent effect, with respect to importation of goods, originating from the customs territory of one Contracting Party and destined for the customs territory of the other Contracting Party.

1.2. Quantitative restrictions.

The Contracting Parties in their mutual trade shall refrain from introducing special measures or requirements, which are not applied to domestic or third-country products in similar situations, for importation of goods under this Agreement.

1.3. Common customs tariff.

Introduction of the common customs tariff is not envisaged.

The Contracting Parties shall harmonize tariff rate levels applied in trade with the third countries. The Contracting Parties agreed to hold regular consultations aimed at achieving that goal.

2. Export restrictions.

2.1 Duties and charges.

The Contracting Parties shall not apply customs duties, taxes and charges, which have an equivalent effect, with respect to exportation of goods originating from the customs territory of one Contracting Party and destined for the customs territory of the other Contracting Party.

2.2. Quantitative restrictions.

The Contracting Parties in their mutual trade shall refrain from introducing special measures or requirements, which are not applied to domestic or third-country products in similar situations, for exportation of goods under this Agreement.

3. Rules of Origin.

Goods originating from the territories of the Contracting Parties shall be goods determined by Regulations on Establishing a Country of Origin as of 30 November, 2000 approved by Decision of the Governments Heads' Council of the Commonwealth of Independent States.

4. Standards.

The Agreement does not contain any specific provisions concerning standards.

5. Safeguards.

The Contracting Parties may introduce unilaterally export/ import restrictions, but strictly for a definite period or time. Such measures may be introduced as quantitative export/ import restrictions or as special duties, antidumping or countervailing duties. The above-mentioned measures shall be of exceptional nature and applied only in case of:

- acute deficit of this product in the domestic market, until the market situation is stabilized;
- acute deficit of balance of payments, until the situation with the balance of payments is stabilized;
- where a good is imported into the territory of one of the Contracting Parties in such increased amounts or on such terms, which damage or threaten to damage local manufacturers of similar or directly competing goods;
- with a view to carrying out the measures stipulated for re-exportation.

The Contracting Party introducing a restriction shall furnish without delay upon request by another Contracting Party all necessary information on the reasons for establishing, forms and duration of such measures. The Contracting Parties shall give preference to those measures, which have the least harmful effect on achieving the goals of this Agreement.

6. Antidumping and Countervailing Measures.

Antidumping and countervailing measures may be introduced unilaterally for the purpose of limiting export/ import for a strictly definite period.

7. Subsidies and State Support.

The Agreement does not contain any specific provision concerning subsidies and state support as well as concerning countervailing measures.

8. Provisions concerning specific industries.

The Agreement does not contain any specific provision concerning specific industries.

9. Other provisions.

The Contracting Parties shall exchange, on a regular basis, information concerning customs issues, including the customs statistics. Authorized bodies of the Contracting Parties shall agree on the procedure for such an exchange.

III. General Provisions of the Agreement.

1. Exceptions and Reservations.

The Agreement shall not deprive the Contracting Parties of the right to take measures generally accepted in the international practice, which are considered by the Contracting Parties necessary for the protection of their vital interests or which are undoubtedly necessary for the implementation of international agreements of which they are signatories or intend to become signatories, and these measures concern:

- information affecting interests of national defence;
- traffic in arms, ammunition and military equipment;
- research or production related to the national defence needs;
- supply of materials and equipment used in nuclear industry;
- protection of public moral and order;
- protection of industrial and intellectual property;
- trade in gold, silver or other precious metals and stones;
- protection of life and health of people, animals and plants.

2. Accession.

There is no provision in the Agreement allowing other countries to join it as this is a bilateral agreement.

3. Dispute Settlement Procedures.

Disputes between the Contracting Parties on the interpretation or application of the provisions of this Agreement shall be settled by way of negotiations.

4. Relation with Other Trade Agreements.

The Agreement does not establish any specific relation with other trade agreements.

None of the articles of this Agreement shall preclude either of the Contracting Parties from establishing relations with third parties and comply with obligations undertaken according to any other international agreements a signatory to which the Contracting Party of this agreement is or may become, subject to the other agreement's provisions not contradicting to the ones contained in this Agreement.

5. Institutional Framework.

The Contracting Parties shall assign the tasks of achieving objectives of this agreement and elaborating recommendations on improvement of trade and economic cooperation between the two countries to the Intergovernmental Ukrainian-Belarusian mixed Commission on Trade and Economic Cooperation.

The Commission functions according to the Agreement between the Government of Ukraine and the Government of the Republic of Belarus on Establishing the Intergovernmental Ukrainian-Belarusian Mixed Commission on Trade and Economic Cooperation of April 12, 1996.

The major goals of the Commission are the following:

- to review the results of foreign economic activity of the Contracting Parties, to analyze the process of implementation of major directions and principles of trade and economic cooperation;
- to work out and to submit to the competent authorities of the Contracting Parties recommendations on improvement, development and further harmonization of the processes under consideration;
- to examine other issues related to trade and economic cooperation.

The Commission shall consist of the Ukrainian and Belarusian parts.

Heads of national parts shall be appointed according to the national procedures of the relevant countries.

Each national part of the Commission shall appoint Secretary, who coordinates activities of the Commission's working bodies.

The Commission may establish sub-commissions and working groups with the purpose of fulfilling its duties. The Commission shall define the goal, powers and composition of such entities.

IV. Other Information.

The Contracting Parties shall consider incompatible with the purposes of this Agreement any unfair business practices and shall not allow in particular, but not exclusively the following methods thereof:

- agreements between enterprises, decisions made by the associations of enterprises, and general methods of business practices aimed at hindering or limiting competition or disrupting the competitive environment in the territories of the Contracting Parties;
- actions by means of which one or a few enterprises use their dominant position, limiting competition within the entire territory of the Contracting Parties or a significant part thereof.

Each Contracting Party shall provide free transit, via its territory, of goods originating from the customs territory of the other Contracting Party and/or third countries.

Each Contracting Party shall prevent unauthorized re-exportation of goods which are subject to measures of tariff or non-tariff regulation in the territory of a Contracting Party from which the goods originate.
