II. Trade provisions.

1. Import restrictions.

1.1. Duties and charges.

The Contracting Parties shall not apply customs duties, taxes and charges, which have an equivalent effect, with respect to importation of goods, originating from the customs territory of one Contracting Party and destined for the customs territory of the other Contracting Party.

1.2. Quantitative restrictions.

The Contracting Parties shall refrain from application of discriminatory measures, introduction of quantitative restrictions or equivalent measures with respect to importation of goods under provisions of this Agreement.

The Contracting Parties may introduce quantitative or other special restrictions subject to approval by the Contracting Parties.

The above-mentioned restrictions shall be of exceptional nature and may be introduced only under circumstances as stipulated in the GATT agreements.

1.3. Common customs tariff.

Introduction of the common customs tariff is not envisaged.

2. Export restrictions.

2.1 Duties and charges.

The Contracting Parties shall not apply customs duties, taxes and charges, which have an equivalent effect, with respect to exportation of goods originating from the customs territory of one Contracting Party and destined for the customs territory of the other Contracting Party.

2.2. Quantitative restrictions.

The Contracting Parties shall refrain from application of discriminatory measures in bilateral trade, introduction of quantitative restrictions or equivalent measures with respect to exportation of goods under provisions of this Agreement.

The Contracting Parties may introduce quantitative or other special restrictions subject to approval by the Contracting Parties.

The above-mentioned restrictions shall be of exceptional nature and may be introduced only under circumstances as stipulated in the GATT agreements.

3. Rules of Origin.

Goods originating from the territories of the Contracting Parties shall be goods determined by Regulations on Establishing a Country of Origin as of 24 September 1993 approved by the Decision of the Governments Heads' Council of the Commonwealth of Independent States.

4. Standards.

The Agreement does not contain any specific provisions concerning standards.

5. Safeguards.

The Agreement does not contain any description of safeguard measures or mechanisms applied in domestic trade.

6. Antidumping and Countervailing Duties.

The Agreement does not contain any specific provisions concerning anti-dumping and countervailing measures.

7. Subsidies and State Support.

The Agreement does not contain any specific provision concerning subsidies and state support as well as concerning countervailing measures.

8. Provisions concerning specific industries.

The Agreement does not contain any specific provision concerning specific industries.

9. Other provisions.

The Contracting Parties shall exchange, on a regular basis, information concerning laws and other legislative acts on economic activity, as well as concerning issues of trade, investments, taxation, banking and insurance activity and other financial services, concerning transport and customs issues, including custom statistics.

III. General provisions of the Agreement.

1. Exceptions and Reservations.

The Agreement shall not prevent the Contracting Parties from the right to take measures generally accepted in the international practice, which are considered by the Contracting Parties necessary for the protection of their vital interests or which are undoubtedly necessary for the implementation of international agreements of which they are signatories or intend to become signatories, and these measures concern:

- information affecting interests of national defence;
- traffic in arms, ammunition and military equipment;
- research or production related to the national defence needs;
- supply of materials and equipment used in nuclear industry;
- protection of public moral and order;
- protection of industrial and intellectual property;
- trade in gold, silver or other precious metals and stones;
- protection of life and health of people, animals and plants.

2. Accession.

There is no provision in the Agreement allowing other countries to join it as this is a bilateral agreement.

3. Dispute Settlement Procedures.

Disputes between the Contracting Parties on the interpretation or application of the provisions of this Agreement shall be settled by way of negotiations.

4. Relation with Other Trade Agreements.

The Agreement does not establish any specific relation with other trade agreements.

Provisions of this Agreement shall replace the provisions of any bilateral agreements concluded earlier by the Contracting Parties insofar as the latter are incompatible or identical with the former.

5. Institutional Framework.

To implement the objectives of this Agreement and to work out recommendations on improving trade and economic cooperation between the two countries, the Contracting Parties agreed to establish the Joint Ukrainian-Turkmen Commission.

The Commission functions according to the Regulation on the Joint Ukrainian-Turkmen Commission on Economic Cooperation of October 10, 2003.

The major functions of the Commission are the following:

- to consider issues and to elaborate major activities aimed at promotion of mutually beneficial economic cooperation between the states, which emanate from international treaties;
- to promote search and development of prospective areas of economic cooperation, including the Contracting Parties' capital and technology attraction, creation of financial industrial groups, joint ventures and cooperative business;
- to formulate proposals aimed at widening and deepening of trade and economic and science and technical cooperation in areas, which are of mutual interest to the Contracting Parties, as well as are aimed at increasing foreign trade turnover in the process of liberalizing trade relations;
- to coordinate the work of ministries, administrations, organizations and companies of various ownership forms in the areas of trade and economic and science and technical cooperation, as well as to involve them in the activities of the working bodies of the Commission (sub commissions, expert groups);
- to establish and to develop contacts between the two national parts of the Commission, to facilitate immediate resolution of economic cooperation issues.

National part of the Commission functions under the auspices of the Governments of the relevant Contracting Parties.

National part of the Commission comprises Head, Deputy Head, Secretary and other members of the Commission. They shall be appointed according to the procedure set in each country.

IV. Other Information.

The Contracting Parties shall consider incompatible with the purposes of this Agreement unfair business practices, which shall not be applied, in particular, but not exclusively the following methods thereof:

- agreements between enterprises, decisions made by the associations of enterprises, and collective methods of business practice aimed at hindering or limiting competition or disrupting the competitive environment in the territories of the Contracting Parties;
- actions by means of which one or several enterprises use their dominant position, limiting competition within the entire territory of the Contracting Parties or a significant part thereof.

Each Contracting Party shall provide free transit, via its territory, of goods originating from the customs territory of the other Contracting Party and/or third countries and destined for the customs territory of the other Contracting Party or a third country.
