

review and negotiations under Article 13.2 shall include technical barriers to trade.

CHAPTER 5

TRADE REMEDIES

ARTICLE 5.1

Anti-dumping and countervailing measures

1. The Parties reaffirm their rights and obligations arising under Article VI of the GATT 1994, the Anti-dumping Agreement and the SCM Agreement.
2. If a Party finds that dumping or countervailable subsidisation is taking place in trade with the other Party, it will, before the imposition of final measures, notify the other Party.
3. This Agreement does not confer any additional rights or obligations on either Party with regard to the conduct of investigations and application of anti-dumping and countervailing measures, referred to in paragraph 1.

ARTICLE 5.2

Safeguard measures

1. The Parties reaffirm their rights and obligations arising under Article XIX of the GATT 1994 and Safeguards Agreement.
2. A Party intending to adopt safeguard measures shall notify the other Party immediately of such measures and of the rules for their application.
3. This Agreement does not confer any additional rights or impose any additional obligations on either Party with regard to the conduct of investigations and application of safeguard measures, referred to in paragraph 1.

ARTICLE 5.3

Dispute settlement

This Chapter is not subject to dispute settlement under Chapter 12.