

(a) further minor production in third countries of originating goods with respect to specifically identified goods and specifically designated production processes, including minor processing and simple assembly of textile products; and

(b) specific goods that undergo significant production in the territory of one of the Parties.

8. Where a Party considers that a rule of origin for a good requires modification on the basis that the good undergoes significant production in its territory, it shall submit a proposed modification along with supporting rationale and studies to the other Party for that other Party's consideration.

Article 5.13: Definitions

For purposes of this Chapter:

identical goods means goods that are the same in all respects, including physical characteristics, quality and reputation, irrespective of minor differences in appearance that are not relevant to a determination of origin of those goods under Chapter Three.

PART THREE :

GOVERNMENT PROCUREMENT

Chapter Six Government Procurement

Article 6.1: Government Procurement

The rights and obligations of the Parties relating to government procurement shall be governed by the Agreement on Government Procurement, Annex 4 of the WTO Agreement, as of the date of its entry into force for the Parties.

Article 6.2: Further Liberalization

The Parties will endeavour to negotiate further liberalization of access by suppliers of the other Party to their government procurement.

PART FOUR

CONDUCT OF BUSINESS

Chapter Seven Competition Policy

Article 7.1: Competition Law